September 16 - October 1 Players Club of Swarthmore
Tickets and more info @ pcstheater.org

Something Rotten Relaxed Performance

Performance Contains

- Live orchestra, mature themes, loud noises including clapping, singing, yelling, subtle strobe lighting during the opening of Act II, sound cues and LOTS of tap dancing!

During the Performance

- Fidget and tactile items may be brought from home into the theater
- Audience members may leave and return as needed or move around the theater during the performance
- The lobby will be available if a guest needs a break from the performance and features a live feed of the performance on a TV
- 15 pairs of noise-canceling headphones are available for patrons if needed

Arrival and Parking

- There is a parking lot attached to the theater for convenience
- If assistance is needed, a staff member can assist

Accessibility

- This performance will be on Main Stage which is on the first floor of the theater
- Main Stage has 4 wheelchair accessible seats and 2 additional wheelchair companion seats
- Patrons can also request assisted hearing devices
- PCS has a new ticketing system that allows patrons to choose their own seats to reserve, so individuals may choose aisle seats, or seats close to a door if that would be beneficial
